Presidents Message

Hello Everyone!

Rain in July? Are we still in Texas?? It seems that even the rain can't keep a Southwest Reiner from going to a show! The updated SWRHA year-end standings at the end of this newsletter include both the Reinarama and the Texas Classic. Only two more shows to go so don't miss the One Hot Reining in Waco on July 25-29 and the SWRHA Futurity and Show Oct. 24-28. Thanks to Tracy Lynch for another successful Rookie Day! If you have not attended this event in the past look for it on our calendar for next year and make it a point to attend! Plans are moving along nicely for the SWRHA Futurity and Show. The schedule, forms, conditions and sponsorship information will be on the website very soon. Note the addition of the schooling class scheduled for Tues. along with the paid warm-ups Sat.-Mon. We are trying to allow for plenty of opportunities to prepare horses in a "relaxed show" environment. We are pleased to already have several sponsorships confirmed for the futurity and show. If you would like to become a sponsor of this fabulous event please contact one of our board members and/or check the website for sponsorship information that will be posted soon at www.swrha.com. While you are at the website take note of the wonderful press release from our show manager, Pro Management. The added money just keeps going up!! This newsletter will be a long one but we don't want to miss an opportunity to start thanking our futurity and show sponsors so...read on!

Sincerely,
Jeanne Schniederjan

2007 SWRHA Futurity and Show Diamond Level Naming Sponsors

We are very excited to welcome Cinder Lakes Ranch as our sponsor for the $10,000 added Open class scheduled to run on Friday evening. With stellar athletes and proven performers, Cinder Lakes Ranch is home to some of the best bred equine talent the performance horse industry has to offer. Cinder Lakes Ranch is located on 1,000 beautiful acres in Powell Butte, Oregon. Owned by Dennis and Kathy Beetham, this unique operation specializes in cutting, reining, and working cow horses. In 2005, Cinder Lakes Ranch expanded to a second location in Valley View, Texas, which is owned jointly between the Beethams and Kathy's son Rick Ford. Located in the heart of horse country, the Texas operation serves as an ideal satellite location with easy access to stallions, embryo transfer centers and breeding facilities. The quality of broodmares at Cinder Lakes Ranch is truly second to none. When asked what the goal is for Cinder Lakes Ranch, Rick is clear on the objective. "We are building the highest quality band of broodmares we can," he explains. "We want to show people that the strength of the mare is just as important as the strength of the stallion."

The Houston Ranch will return as our gracious sponsor for the mare incentive program offered in both the Open and Non Pro Futurity classes this year! The Houston Ranch operates in Whitesboro, Texas for the primary purpose of providing reproductive and embryo transfer service to the horse industry. By utilization of state of the art equine reproductive technology, specialized facilities, and an extensive and well managed recipient herd, all in conjunction with a staff dedicated to service and quality, the Houston Ranch is at the forefront in equine reproduction.

We are proud to welcome back Billingsley Ford as our naming sponsor for the Open Futurity class! Long time SWRHA supporter Mike Billingsley, of Billingsley Ford, has signed a three year deal to sponsor the Open Futurity division. Billingsley has been a sponsor of the Southwest Futurity and Show for two decades. During that time Billingsley Ford has developed a large client list among the biggest money winners in our industry. To acknowledge this strong relationship, Billingsley Ford became a naming sponsor for the Open division last year. As truck sales director Donnie Gillham observed, "Reiners have shown how much they believe in Billingsley Ford, and Mike felt it's time for us to show how much we believe in the reining horse industry." This year the Southwest Reining Horse Futurity rides with Billingsley Ford!

Show Update

The SWRHA affiliate qualifying shows have now ended so be sure that you check where you stand at the NRHA website. If you are in the top ten for any class then you will be eligible to compete for the South Central Affiliate Championship and qualify to compete for the North American Championships held at the NRHA Futurity show.

Liz Hayes put on a nice show for us back in May. The Reinarama held at Ardmore, Oklahoma was a nice relaxing show where our members enjoyed the friendly competition. Jordan Donnelly proved once again that she is one to watch, taking both the Championship and Reserve Championship in the 13 and Under with her horses Hollywood All Star and Spotted Snowy River. Audra Ames also put together a great run to take home the Reserve Championship title in the 14-18 with her talented gelding, The Natural Answer. Audra's horse also won a Morrison Bronze when he took top honors in the Open class with Shelli Ries. Kinzy Donnelly teamed up with Alexa Beaty's new horse Lizzi Whiz to win the Reserve Championship in both the Limited Open and the Novice Horse Non Pro. The Novice Horse Non Pro finished up with Co Champions Amy Kowalsky with QHR Chocolena Pep and Victoria Lambert with Kick It In The Bud. Amy also took the Reserve Championship in the Intermediate Non Pro, which was won by Nick Wallis and Smart Smokin Chic. Ronald Thompson and Gay Bar Chic ran away with the Championship title in the Non Pro class. Cynthia Booker and Taris Wildcat took the Reserve Championship in the Rookie

Our other show held in June was the Texas Classic in Fort Worth. Always a big show, the management has worked hard the past few years on their scheduling to make it an exhibitor friendly show. Spanning over 3 days the show ran very smoothly and without late nights. Emily Winigar ran a beautiful pattern with Hot Hollywood Jewels to win the 13 and Under, followed closely by Jordan Donnelly and Hollywood All Star. Cash Bridges and Absolute An Juice put together a flawless pattern to be the highest placing Southwest member in the 14-18 class. Another youth member Charles Berg rode his horse Whata Dunit to be the highest placing member in the Limited Non Pro. As usual, Ronald Thompson was at the top of the game taking the Reserve Championship with Gay Bar Chic in the tough Novice Horse Non Pro class. Nick Wallis with Smart Smokin Chic and Amy Kowalsky with QHR Chocolena Pep continued their sequence of Champion and Reserve Champion in the Intermediate Non Pro. Nick also won the Reserve Championship in the Non Pro class. Jana Simons took top honors with her beautiful mare Gunner Hold Your Fire in the Rookie class. Terry Erickson, a new member to our affiliate, proved he's one to keep an eye on taking the Championship in the Intermediate Open and being the highest placing member in the Open class.

Also a Big Congratulations to our members that did well at the Paint World Show! Nick Wallis marked a 217.5 with Smart Smokin Chic to win the Amateur Reining, followed closely by Jana Simons and Gunner Hold Your Fire who marked a 216 to take home the Reserve World Championship buckle. Cheri Wallis was also in the top ten, and her horse Dazzling Top Gun went on to win the World Championship in the Senior Reining.

If you have news on any accomplishments made by a Southwest member, please submit them to spincityreiners@msn.com so we can give them some bragging rights!

Notes: For all NRHA members the NRHA has now posted all the bylaw amendment proposals and the proposed Rule Changes to the member's only section of the NRHA website. It is important that every NRHA member read and responds with their comments to the proposed Rule changes. Rule changes are voted on by the full board of directors at their August meeting. These rule changes impact your NRHA membership and enjoyment of participating in NRHA approved events!
